Here you will find a carefully-curated selection of wines from both the Old and New Worlds, chosen to compliment Tristan's modern cuisine and reflect the team that support him.
Wines are listed by style, rather than country alone so as to help you to find something new and exciting.

Please don't hesitate to ask for advice.

All vintages were correct at the time of print, but are subject to change: Suitable alternatives may be suggested.

Fine Wine by Coravin

Coravin is a unique wine access and preservation system that uses inert gas to dispense the liquid without pulling the cork and exposing it to oxygen. This allows us to offer you wine by the glass that would otherwise be too delicate to serve.

We Recommend...

Bière de Saison, Citra Dry-Hopped, The Kernel, Bermondsey, England 2014 £24

Since its founding in 2009, the Kernel have been at the fore-front of London's craft beer movement. This Belgian farmhouse ale is hopped during its long two year conditioning period in white wine foudres with the tropical Citra hop. This gives this already spritzzy beer intriguing notes of mango and papaya.

Blanc de Blancs Brut, Albourne Estate, West Sussex, England 2013 £75

Albourne Estate have just released their first sparkling wine, a Blanc de Blancs from their inaugural 2013 vintage. This "white of whites" is made from the highest quality juice pressed from selected hand-picked Chardonnay grapes grown just north of Brighton. As a wine of a single vineyard and single vintage it will reflect the nuances of place and weather patterns creating a true 'terroir' wine. Alison and co' have crafted a sparkling wine with elegance, finesse, character with a fine, delicate and persistent mousse

Muscadet Sèvre & Maine Sur Lie, Les Grands Presbytères, Loire, France 2013 £33

Domaine les Grands Presbytères is based in St Fiâtre, southeast of Nantes, at the mouth of the beautiful River Loire and was established by Nelly Marzelleau's grandfather in the 1950s. Nelly passionately runs the estate, with its prize vines, close to 50 years in age, producing this complex and refined wine. St Fiâtre is considered one of the best sites for Muscadet Sèvre et Maine due to its soil composition; mainly granitic gneiss with loose flints that impart their footprint onto this elegant dry wine.

Alvarinho, Grande Escolha, Casa do Valle, DOC, Sintra, Portugal 2015 £41

Wine production at Casa do Valle dates back to the 18th century although estate bottling only started in 1989. In 2009, they launched the GRANDE ESCOLHA to celebrate 20 years since the first bottling under their own brand. The careful selection of the best grapes from their vineyards has resulted in a bright, pale straw coloured wine, with an exuberant floral and tropical-driven aroma. On the palate the structure makes this wine complex, mineral, round, and with a long and invigorating finish.

Chardonnay, Iona, Elgin, South Africa 2015 £52

The Elgin is unique in South Africa's wine regions as its altitude and terroir give it a longer growing season to the rest of the country and make it ideal for producing complex, fresh white wines. Iona have created this Puligny-like Chardonnay in a clean and creamy style with ample body and a long finish. This wine spends 24 months in 300 litre French oak barrels and shows notes of citrus, marzipan and underlying hazelnut and lime notes.

Pinot Noir, Saurus, Familia Schroeder, Patagonia, Argentina 2016 £32

Fossils of a dinosaur were found during the construction of the Familia Schroeder winery. The specimen belonged to the Titanosauridae family, well known because of its huge size and it was given the name Panamericansaurus Schroederi, known locally as Saurus. On the nose of this Pinot you can detect floral notes and red fruits such raspberries, currants and strawberries, supported by aromas of mushroom, vanilla and cocoa. The palate is round and fruity with mild tannins, medium body and moderate acidity.

Shiraz, Orphan Bank, Langmeil Winery, Barossa Valley, Australia 2012 £90

Ten rows of Shiraz vines planted by vigneron Christian Auricht's pre-1860 were saved from the bulldozer by the vineyard. The 'orphans' were replanted alongside Auricht's original vineyards on the banks of the River Para at Langmeil's cellars. Deep red crimson with purple hues, it has intense dark fruit and a lifted perfume of violets and raspberry, with fine chocolate, cedar spice and Anzac cookies. A full bodied and rich wine, the biscuit sweetness marries with the fruit wonderfully and flows onto the finish with sweetness and spice with delicate, textured, fine tannins.
