Wine by Coravin

Coravin is a unique wine access and preservation system that uses inert gas to dispense the liquid without pulling the cork and exposing it to oxygen. This allows us to offer you wine by the glass that would otherwise be too delicate to serve.

The Trouble with Dreams, Sugrue Pierre, West Sussex, England 2013 £110

Dermot Sugrue is the former head winemaker at Nyetimber and is currently head winemaker for the Wiston Estate. According to Dermot, his Trouble with Dreams project is a simple concept: One wine is made per year - Chardonnay being the dominant grape - that expresses itself freely and without force. Every year it is allowed to be what it wants to become, with the grapes, vintage and terroir all speaking through the wine.

Cellar Selection, Albourne Estate, West Sussex, England 2015 £33

Based on the edge of the South Downs Alison Nightingale of Albourne Estate produces exciting single estate boutique wines. This wine is unique in her range as it is exposed to the influence of oak. The Ortega grapes ripen early and after whole bunch pressing they are fermented in second hand French oak barrels to impart a hint of smoke, spice and vanilla. Alison then stirs the lees for several weeks in order to develop a richer, fuller wine style. The Ortega is then blended with 15% Chardonnay, resulting in a complex, rounded and expressive wine.

Pinot Auxerrois, Jean-Baptiste Adam, Ammerschwihr, Alsace, France 2014 £45

In May 2014, Jean-Baptiste Adam and his family celebrated the 400th anniversary of their family being grape growers and winemakers in Ammerschwihr. They can count themselves among the leaders of biodynamic farming in Alsace and produce wines of elegance, balance, minerality and longevity. This Vieilles Vignes, or old vine, Auxerrois is a harmonious wine that displays a fresh and floral nose with stone fruits and citrus on the palate.

Riesling, Kabinett, Josephshofer, von Kesselstatt, Mosel, Germany 2015 £52

The Josephshofer Grosse Lage - the German equivalent of a Grand Cru - is a monopole vineyard solely owned by Reichsgraf von Kesselstatt. The off-dry wine has unmistakable palate of restrained stone fruits and a hint of wild herbs and earthy, spicy components with a lively vein of acidity. The maxim of the wine is illustrated on the beautifully illustrated label: Tell the truth, drink what is pure, eat what is in front of you and love what is precious.

Pinot Noir, Saurus, Familia Schroeder, Patagonia, Argentina 2016 £33

Fossils of a dinosaur were found during the construction of the Familia Schroeder winery. The specimen belonged to the Titanosauridae family, well known because of its huge size and it was given the name Panamericansaurus Schroederi, known locally as Saurus. On the nose of this Pinot you can detect floral notes and red fruits such raspberries, currants and strawberries, supported by aromas of mushroom, vanilla and cocoa. The palate is round and fruity with mild tannins, medium body and moderate acidity.

Barbera d'Asti, Rive, Il Cascinone, DOCG, Piedmont, Italy 2014 £42

Araldica is Piemonte's most progressive co-operative, situated in the heart of Barbera d'Asti territory. Many of their members joined the co-operative in the 1950s and have a long and loyal relationship with the winery. This is a classic barrique-aged Barbera d'Asti from Araldica's oldest vineyards. Deep garnet hued with vibrant aromas of black cherries and prunes with chocolate and toasty oak undertones and a touch of mint. The palate shows redcurrant and black cherry fruit with a spicy kick, taut acidity and fine oak tannins.

Avaton, Ktima Gerovassiliou, Epanomi, Greece 2012 £55

A powerful blend of three Greek indigenous grape varieties: Limnio, Mavroudi and Mavrotragano. Limnio, mentioned by comic dramatist Aristophanes as "Limnia ampelos" in the 5th Century BC, is the oldest attested Greek grape variety and predominates in this blend. The wine has a brilliant, deep-red colour and a complex bouquet of ripe dark fruits (raspberries), raisins, coffee, vanilla and cacao. On the palate, gentle tannins are supported by an abundance of fruit, with a pleasing finish that continues with a repetition of spice.
