Wine by Coravin

Coravin is a unique wine access and preservation system that uses inert gas to dispense the liquid without pulling the cork and exposing it to oxygen: This allows us to offer you wine by the glass that would otherwise be too delicate to serve.

We Recommend...

The Trouble with Dreams, Sugrue Pierre, West Sussex, GBR 2013 £110

Dermot Sugrue is the former head winemaker at Nyetimber and is currently head winemaker for the Wiston Estate. According to Dermot, his Trouble with Dreams project is a simple concept: One wine is made per year - Chardonnay being the dominant grape - that expresses itself freely and without force. Every year it is allowed to be what it wants to become, with the grapes, vintage and terroir all speaking through the wine. This is English sparkling wine at its most expressive and impressive best.

Chant des Vignes Sec, Domaine Cauhapé, Jurançon, FRA 2015 £35

Henri Ramonteu runs a family owned estate in the foothills of the Pyrenees and is renowned for producing elegant wines from the indigenous grapes of the region. The AOC of Jurançon is famed in France for its luscious sweet wines however it also produces some delightful dry white wines. The Chant des Vignes, or Song of the Vines, is an aromatic white that contains floral aromas and delicate grapefruit and stone fruit flavours with a long complex finish.

Cellar Selection, Albourne Estate, West Sussex, England 2015 £35

Based on the edge of the South Downs, Alison Nightingale of Albourne Estate produces exciting single estate boutique wines. This wine is unique in her range as it is exposed to the influence of oak. The Ortega grapes ripen early and after whole bunch pressing they are fermented in second hand French oak barrels to impart a hint of smoke, spice and vanilla. Alison then stirs the lees for several weeks in order to develop a richer, fuller wine style. The Ortega is then blended with 15% Chardonnay, resulting in a complex, rounded and expressive wine.

Semillon, Keith Tulloch, Hunter Valley, AUS 2014 £42

Keith set up his family business in 1997 with his wife Amanda, and their attention to detail has earned them praise by many in the industry. His wines combine elegance and concentration in order to exhibit the best traditions of Australia's oldest wine region. One of the Hunter Valley's most famous products is its unique expression of the grape Semillon. These dry wines are crisp and citrusy in their youth, developing toasty, nutty and honeyed notes with age.

Mercurey, La Framboisière, Domaine Faiveley, Burgundy, FRA, 37.5cl 2011 £36

Brother and sister team Erwan and Eve Faiveley are the 7th generation to work for this family domaine based in Nuits-Saint-George. In 2007 Erwan took the wines in a new direction, creating a modern, elegant house style. The family has had sole ownership of this east facing vineyard since 1933. This delicious half bottle has intense fruit aromas, reflecting the name of the vineyard which translates as 'the raspberry patch'. The fresh and spicy character is underlaid by a pleasant mineralogy in the wine.

Grand Mont, Domaine Pierre-Jacques Druet, Bourgueil, Loire, FRA 1998 £52

The now retired Pierre-Jacques Druet was a visionary winemaker in his appellation who strove to produce elegant wines that displayed the beauty of their terroir. Bourgueil is renowned for the longevity of its fine red wines and the Grand Mont is amongst its finest vineyard locations. This mature Cabernet Franc has a heart of stewed berries surrounded by earthy notes and smoke with hints of tobacco and leather.

Cinsault/Syrah, Monk Fish, DeMorgenzon, Stellenbosch, ZAF 2015 £36

DeMorgenzon, "the morning sun", was so named because it is the first part of the Stellenbosch Kloof to see the sun thanks to its aspect and its altitude. As a part of his Liberator program Master of Wine Richard Kelley has worked with the winery to produce a one off small batch blend of Cinsault and Syrah (just 510 bottles!). This is a relatively restrained South African Cape blend that exhibits delicious black fruits and a spicy finish.
